Lenten Dinner Volunteers and Desserts

Please consider volunteering for some (or all) of our Lenten Dinners as part of your Lenten Sacrifices - it takes many hands to make everything work. Even if you can't work the dinner itself, we need volunteers for preparation on Thursday evening and Friday Morning and cleanup afterwards. If you are able to volunteer OR to help make any of our DESSERTS, please sign up in the Narthex.

week we will take up a collection for the Catholic Home Missions Appeal. Today, nearly 40% of diocese in the United states and its territories are unable to fund the essential pastoral work their communities need. Your support of this appeal helps them meet these faith formation and sacramental needs. Please prayerfully consider how you can support this appeal. More information can be found at www.usccb.org/home-missions.

From Fr. Dino's DeskSixth Sunday in Ordinary Time
Reflection*February 11: Texts: Lev. 13:1-2, 44-46, Ps.: 32:1-2, 5, 11, 1 Cor. 10:31-11:1, Mark 1:40-45.

Jesus, the Healer. “Outcasts” are not just those of long ago who have broken a legal taboo. Today there are those we have cast out: they may be members of the other political party, another religion, a foreign culture, even members of our own families, etc.

The law described in the first reading functioned to protect the community from an uncontrollable, infectious disease: the leprous individual was to “dwell apart.” In the gospel Jesus, having “touched” the leper to heal him, made Himself unclean according to Jewish law, and so He had to “[remain] outside in deserted places.”

By touching the leper, Jesus takes on the leper's ritual uncleanness. Consequently, He must remain an outcast, living in “deserted places.” But this does not stop the people from “coming to Him from everywhere.” In Jesus they recognize Someone who freely and fearlessly touches everything that is human. They cannot stay away from Someone who draws this close to them. Can we?

Dear Friends of the Diocese of Greensburg,

As Catholics, we all are familiar with the miracle of the loaves and the fishes. Simply, Jesus received and shared. The theme of the 2024 Diocesan Lenten Appeal is Receive and Share. I ask you to prayerfully consider making a donation. Thank you for your help. It is in the sharing of what we have that we truly become disciples of Christ.

Yours in Christ,
