From Fr. Matthew's Desk

Live Nativity—In 1223, St. Francis created the Nativity scene as a way for people to immerse themselves in the mystery of Jesus' Incarnation—God taking on human nature and walking among us. This first Nativity in the town of Greccio, Italy was a live Nativity—he asked people from the town to share in the experience by taking part. It was a concept so new and revolutionary that he even needed the Pope's permission!

Last year, we took part in this great tradition by having our first Live Nativity, and it was extremely successful! Please invite neighbors and friends to visit our 2nd annual Live Nativity on Dec. 16/17. The event is open to the public and a great way to share our faith.

We are also looking for youth and adult volunteers to take part in the Live Nativity roles and to provide cookies (homemade or store-bought). Like last year, we are also looking for livestock to make the "live" part of the display more realistic. If you are able to assist in any of these ways, please call the Parish Office or contact Carolyn Davis.

Little Blue Books and 2023 Calendars—You will find Advent Little Blue Books (regular and large print) and 2023 Calendars in the Church Narthex. Please take these and make use of them yourselves or share them with others!

We are asking for a free-will donation for the Little Books. The parish purchases them well in advance of each season, but your donation helps defray the costs.

Calendars are provided to us courtesy of James Ferguson Funeral Home, Blairsville and Shoemaker Funeral Home, Blairsville—we are grateful for their ongoing support!

Uplifting Our
Community

Spotlight on Uplifting Our Faith Community

Periodically, I would like to spotlight some of our parish efforts for the "Uplift Our Faith Community" campaign. Through these, I will invite you to take part in things that further our efforts in stewardship and evangelization.

Increased and Online Giving—as part of our campaign, please prayerfully consider an increase in your donation to support our Parish. In addition to an increased weekly or monthly gift, consider making use of scheduled gifts—several parishioners use scheduled "bank checks" for their offertory.

Another option for scheduled giving is in the form of online giving. I am happy to announce that we are now working with Our Sunday Visitor (the same company that prints our envelopes) to provide an online giving portal that can be accessed at link.goodshepherdkent.org/OnlineGiving. Look for more details soon.

If you prefer envelopes, no worries—we will continue to provide envelopes for those who wish to use them.

Blessing of an Advent Wreath for the Home

The use of the Advent Wreath is a traditional practice which has found its place in the Church as well as in the home. The blessing of an Advent Wreath takes place on the First Sunday of Advent or on the evening before the First Sunday of Advent.

When the blessing of the Advent Wreath is celebrated in the home, it is appropriate that it be blessed by a parent or another member of the family.

All make the sign of the cross as the leader says:

Our help is in the name of the Lord.

Response (R/.) Who made heaven and earth.

*Then the Scripture, Isaiah 9:1-2, 5-6(as below)
or Isaiah 63:16-17, 19 or Isaiah 64:2-7 is read:*

A Reading from the Book of the Prophet Isaiah

The people who walked in darkness have seen a great light;
Upon those who lived in a land of gloom a light has shone.
You have brought them abundant joy and great rejoicing;
They rejoice before you as people rejoice at harvest, as they exult when dividing the spoils.

For a child is born to us, a son is given to us; upon his shoulder dominion rests. They name him Wonder-Counselor, God-Hero, Father-Forever, Prince of Peace. His dominion is vast and forever peaceful, Upon David's throne, and over his kingdom, which he confirms and sustains by judgment and justice, both now and forever.

The zeal of the LORD of hosts will do this!

Reader: The Word of the Lord.

R/. Thanks be to God.

With hands joined, the leader says:

Lord our God,
we praise you for your Son, Jesus Christ:
he is Emmanuel, the hope of the peoples,
he is the wisdom that teaches and guides us,
he is the Savior of every nation.

Lord God,
let your blessing come upon us
as we light the candles of this wreath.
May the wreath and its light
be a sign of Christ's promise to bring us salvation.
May he come quickly and not delay.
We ask this through Christ our Lord.
R/. Amen.

The leader then lights the first (purple) candle.

*The blessing may conclude with a verse from
"O Come, O Come, Emmanuel":*

O come, desire of nations, bind
in one the hearts of humankind;
bid ev'ry sad division cease
and be thyself our Prince of peace.
Rejoice! Rejoice! Emmanuel shall come to thee, O Israel.

"The Accent On-Air: The Symbols of Christmas"

"The Accent On-Air: The Symbols of Christmas," premieres on WTAE-TV Channel 4 on Sunday, Nov. 27, and airs again Sunday, Dec. 4, at 11:30 a.m. In this episode, the staff of The Catholic Accent explores the popular symbols of Christmas, including St. Nicholas, one of the most recognizable figures in the world. Bishop Larry J. Kulick talks about his visit to the Vatican, his audience with Pope Francis and the importance of the gift of the Eucharist. Plus, learn about the meaning behind the Christmas decorations in your home; the wreath, Christmas tree and luminary lights are all steeped in symbolism. Bells will be ringing this season as churches across the Diocese join together to ring church bells as a reminder to many to celebrate the birth of our Savior. And Bishop Kulick is back in the kitchen with a traditional Slovak Christmas Eve soup. "The Accent On-Air" is always on at TheAccentOnline.org.

Bishop to celebrate Lessons and Carols Dec. 9 at Cathedral

Join Bishop Larry J. Kulick for the annual celebration of Lessons and Carols on Friday, Dec. 9, at 7 p.m. at Blessed Sacrament Cathedral, Greensburg, featuring the Diocesan Choir, Blessed Sacrament Cathedral Choir and Diocesan Schools Chorus.

Holly Berry Fair Dec. 2-3, Our Lady of Guadalupe, Kittanning

St. Mary, Our Lady of Guadalupe Parish, Kittanning, will hold a Holly Berry Fair Friday and Saturday, Dec. 2 and 3, from 9 a.m.-6 p.m. in the parish hall. The event will include theme basket and cash raffles, a bake sale, and sales of Christmas greens, used Christmas items, and soup and bread. Bingo will be played both days from noon-2 p.m. with lunch available. On Dec. 3, breakfast with Santa will be served from 9-11 a.m. (RSVP only) and a rigatoni dinner ($11, , dine-in or takeout) will be served from 3-6 p.m. (no preorder required). Information: www.stmarykittanning.org or 724-548-7649.

GOD PROVIDES, BUT YOU'RE

Tuesday, December 13, 7:00 PM — St. Thomas More University Parish

Wednesday, December 14, 7:00 PM — Our Lady of the Assumption (at Lucernemines Church)

Thursday, December 15, 7:00 PM — Holy Family, Seward AND St. Sylvester, Slickville
(Priests from the Deanery will divide between the two simultaneous Penance Services.)

Saturday, December 17, 10:00 AM — St. Bernard, Indiana

Monday, December 19, 7:00 PM — Ss. Simon & Jude, Blairsville

Tuesday, December 20, 7:00 PM — Church of the Good Shepherd

EXAMINATION OF CONSCIENCE

taken from The Rite of Penance, Appendix III

In an examination of conscience, before the Sacrament of Penance, each individual should ask him or herself these questions in particular:

1. What is my attitude to the sacrament of penance? Do I sincerely want to be set free from sin, to turn again to God, to begin a new life, and to enter into a deeper friendship with God? Or do I look on it as a burden to be undertaken as seldom as possible?
2. Did I forget to mention, or deliberately conceal, any grave sins in past confessions?
3. Did I perform the penance I was given? Did I make reparation for any injury to others? Have I tried to put into practice my resolution to lead a better life in keeping with the Gospel?

Each individual should examine his or her life in the light of God's word.

THE LORD SAYS: "YOU SHALL LOVE THE LORD YOUR GOD WITH YOUR WHOLE HEART."

1. Is my heart set on God, so that I really love Him above all things and am faithful to His commandments, as a child loves its father? Or am I more concerned about the things of this world? Have I a right intention in what I do?
2. God spoke to us in Jesus. Is my faith in God firm and secure? Am I wholehearted in accepting the Church's teaching? Have I been careful to grow in my understanding of the faith, to hear God's word, to listen to instructions on the faith, to avoid dangers to faith? Have I been always strong and fearless in professing my faith in God and the Church? Have I been willing to be known as a Christian in private and public life?
3. Have I prayed morning and evening? When I pray, do I really raise my mind and heart to God or is it a matter of words only? Do I offer God my difficulties, my joys, and my sorrows? Do I turn to God in time of temptation?
4. Have I love and reverence for God's name? Have I offended Him in blasphemy, swearing falsely, or taking His name in vain? Have I shown disrespect for the Blessed Virgin Mary and the Saints?
5. Do I keep Sundays and feast days holy by taking a full part, with attention and devotion, in the liturgy, and especially in the Mass? Have I fulfilled the precept of annual confession and of communion during the Easter season?
6. Are there false gods that I worship by giving them greater attention and deeper trust than I give to God: money, superstition spiritism, or other occult practices?

THE LORD SAYS: "LOVE ONE ANOTHER AS I HAVE LOVED YOU."

1. Have I a genuine love for my neighbors? Or do I use them for my own ends, or do to them what I would not want done to myself? Have I given grave scandal by my words or actions?
2. In my family life, have I contributed to the well-being and happiness of the rest of the family by patience and genuine love? Have I been obedient to parents, showing them proper respect and giving them help in their spiritual and material needs? Have I been careful to give a Christian upbringing to my children, and to help them by good example and by exercising authority as a parent? Have I been faithful to my wife (husband) in my heart and in my relations with others?
3. Do I share my possessions with the less fortunate? Do I do my best to help the victims of oppression, misfortune, and poverty? Or do I look down on my neighbor, especially the poor, the sick, the elderly, strangers, and people of other races?
4. Does my life reflect the mission I received in Confirmation? Do I share in the apostolic and charitable works of the Church and in the life of my Parish? Have I helped to meet the needs of the Church and of the world and prayed for them: for unity in the Church, for the spread of the Gospel among the nations, for peace and justice, etc.?
5. Am I concerned for the good and prosperity of the human community in which I live, or do I spend my life caring only for myself? Do I share to the best of my ability in the work of promoting justice, morality, harmony and love in human relations? Have I done my duty as a citizen? Have I paid my taxes?
6. In my work or profession am I just, hard-working, honest, serving society out of love for others? Have I paid a fair wage to my employees? Have I been faithful to my promises and contracts?
7. Have I obeyed legitimate authority and given it due respect?
8. If I am in a position of responsibility or authority, do I use this for my own advantage or for the good of others, in a spirit of service?
9. Have I been truthful and fair, or have I injured others by deceit, calumny, detraction, rash judgment, or violation of a secret?
10. Have I done violence to others by damage to life or limb, reputation, honor, or material possessions? Have I involved them in loss? Have I been responsible for advising an abortion or procuring one? Have I kept up hatred for others? . Am I estranged from others through quarrels, enmity, insults, anger? Have I been guilty of refusing to testify to the innocence of another because of selfishness?
11. Have I stolen the property of others? Have I desired it unjustly and inordinately? Have I damaged it? Have I made restitution of other people's property and made good their loss?
12. If I have been injured, have I been ready to make peace for the love of Christ and to forgive, or do I harbor hatred and the desire for revenge?

CHRIST OUR LORD SAYS: "BE PERFECT AS YOUR FATHER IS PERFECT."

1. Where is my life really leading me? Is the hope of eternal life my inspiration? Have I tried to grow in the life of the Spirit through prayer, reading the word of God and meditating on it, receiving the sacraments, self-denial? Have I been anxious to control my vices, my bad inclinations and passions, e.g. envy, love of food and drink? Have I been proud and boastful, thinking myself better in the sight of God and despising others as less important than myself? Have I imposed my own will on others, without respecting their freedom and rights?
2. What use have I made of time, of health and strength, of the gifts God has given me to be used like the talents in the Gospel? Do I use them to become more perfect every day? Or have I been lazy and too much given to leisure?
3. Have I been patient in accepting the sorrows and disappointments of life? How have I performed mortification so as to "fill up what is wanting to the sufferings of Christ"? Have I kept the precept of fasting and abstinence?
4. Have I kept my senses and my whole body pure and chaste as a temple of the Holy Spirit consecrated for resurrection and glory, and as a sign of God's faithful love for men and women, a sign that is seen most perfectly in the sacrament of matrimony? Have I dishonored my body by fornication, impurity, unworthy conversation or thoughts, evil desires, or actions? Have I given in to sensuality? Have I indulged in reading, conversation, shows, and entertainments that offend against Christian and human decency? Have I encouraged others to sin by my own failure to maintain these standards? Have I been faithful to the moral law in my married life?
5. Have I gone against my conscience out of fear or hypocrisy?
6. Have I always tried to act in the true freedom of the children of God according to the law of the Spirit, or am I the slave of forces within me?
